I shall be reawakened as one with the land.

Ok first light your candle or if you have a wand hold it tight in your hand... Then chant the following: "Howl, Howl, In the night, transformation by a werewolf bite". the repeat it again but say it like this: "Howl, Howl, In the night transformation by a werewolf bite, So mote it be!" So you say it once, but then add "So mote it be" at end And if you have a wand, right after you say "So mote it be", wave it and touch your pinky finger with the wand. I hope this will help all you guys out there... spell was contributed by ExxFruit34 has to be daylight and you have to be outside when you do this spell and you have to say it three times.

You will need the following items for this spell:

mirror mind night time 3 weeks at twilight stare into a mirror for some time (it has to be long) and think about little detailes in your body not about a wolf or this will not work!!! then after 5 day of doing that (not 3 days like sit and stare for 3 days straight. (at twilight))then think about what u would look like as a wolf and do that i think in 2 weeks and 2 days you will a werewolf!!!!

This spell makes you become a werewolf. I am sure it works. This will work 99.9% because nothing can be 100%.

Read the following before doing anything:

1. Draw yourself on a piece of paper in human form. Make sure that there is enough room to draw yourself in wolf form. Note: You have to have the paper horizontal.

2. Color yourself in human and wolf form.

3. Fold the paper hamburger style so that you can't see the drawing.

4. Write down your name, ethnicity, and colors of you in wolf form (eyes, fur, etc.).

5. Fold the paper again hamburger style.

6. Write and say this at the same time: By the light of the moon and our piercing howls, we are further transformed into cunning beasts. From the circle of life to the evolution of man, I shall be reawakened as one with land. So mote it be! (so mote it be should be written as big as you can write it)

7. Fold the paper again hamburger style.

8. Draw a Pentagram.

9. Fold the paper once more. Now every night, for 3 nights, chant: 1x: Gods and Goddesses, make me a werewolf on this plane from pain and transformation.

10: By the light of the moon and our piercing howls, we are further transformed into cunning beasts. From the circle of life to the evolution of man, I shall be reawakened as one with land. So mote it be! Side Effects: Uncontrollable anger

So now go near a mirror put the candle on a thing where the mirror can reflect the candle and you can chant this spell just by watching the reflected candle in the mirror. Spell :

after a week I will shift into how I wish sun light will hurt me but never burn me Silver will hurt me but never kill me mote it be !

You will need the following items for this spell: Pink Flower, Lilacs, Basil(optional), Filtered water, Calmness, Strand of your hair

I got this idea from the spell, "Ugly Werewolf Spell: For You and Others." But, this spell is the opposite.

First, get the pink flower, lilacs, a strand of your hair, and basil, if you used basil. Next, put them in the water and wait 10 minutes. After 10 minutes, take out the flowers, basil(if used), and your hair and put it on yourself as if it was lotion. Then, every day, for 2 days for 2 minutes, think of calming thoughts and meditate and be calm. Then, eat/drink 1 healthy food every day for a week. After the week passes, say on the final day, "I want to be so beautiful, it will be a miracle. I want the guys to look at me and say, hey, look at her! I want to go out with her! NO! SHE'S MINE!"
